01 The richness of the Sonokeling legs and frame, together with the undulating line of the Nahm Chaise Lounge's apron make reference to South Chinese-style furniture. Measures W1800 x D800 x H750 mm with an option of back and side rest on the left available. SGD10,695

02 A Makassar ebony top is matched to the Sonokeling frame of this coffee table. Similar to the Chaise Lounge of the same name, Jaya added the flourish for the table's apron on a whim, to add personality to the piece. Measures W500 x D500 x H450 mm. SGD3,175

The Shiatzy Dining Chair 1 takes off from the first generation of furniture Jaya designed for famous Taiwanese couturier, Shiatzy Chen's many stores. Similar to the rest of the Jaya Classics collection, Sonokeling frame and legs are employed. SGD3,215

07
The Makassar Ebony frame and Sonokeling panels feature a striking bone detail bordering the drawers of Jaya's Nata Tall Boy. The cabinet measures W800 x D450 x H1600 mm. SGD11,760

08
Designed to be no nonsense, practical and useful, the Arya Swivel Floor Lamp has a sturdy bronze base, stem and finial, which is matched with a delicate silk shade. SGD3,890

09 The Teja Pendant Lamp 2 retains the silhouette of its predecessor, the Teja Pendant Lamp 1, but does away with the silvered bronze in favour of a beaten copper shade with gilded detail and gold leaf lining. SGD7,655

10 The concept behind the Asri Sofa was not just about it being visually appealing, but being balanced as well, with a sense of harmony. Measures W2000 x D725 x H800mm with a traditional open weave rattan backrest set against a richly-textured Sonokeling frame. SGD 10,585
